

“Through the Keyhole” Grades 4-6 Creative Writing

Writing Activity: The Corn Dog Art™ Story Starter Image Through the Keyhole can be interpreted in a variety of ways. After watching Through the Keyhole, answer the following questions. Remember, each question can have multiple answers. When answering, think about other possibilities.

1. What words would you use to describe this image?

2. What does the girl see when she looks through the keyhole?

3. Why is the door locked?

5. Why is the person on the stairs wearing a cape?

6. It looks like the girl is saying something. What do you think she is saying?

7. What is the story that the picture is telling you?

CORN DOG ART™ Story Starters Name _____
Observe, Interpret... Create!

“Through the Keyhole” Part 2 Creative Writing

Writing Activity: After watching the The Corn Dog Art™ Story Starter Through the Keyhole, can you figure out what is going on? Write a story describing what is happening. Use details from the image to support your story.
